

JEFF KENNY MEMORIAL GOLF CLASSIC 2013

Aug. 13, 2013

Dear Ken,

First off, let us apologize for the late correspondence in thanking you for your sponsorship for the 16th annual JKM Golf Tournament. Our family faced another loss as Mom/Cathy passed away in July. She was always so amazed at the number of sponsors that were regularly willing to contribute to the tournament. As well, she was honored to be able to further help others with those funds. Our hole sponsors are the backbone of our fund-raising and for that we are grateful. We have been granted so many gifts – it is a pleasure to share them with others. This year 137 golfers took to the links and had a great day of sharing and fun.

Last year, the Robin Hood Association of Sherwood Park was the designated charity for the golf tournament. As this year brought about further cutbacks to their funding, the non-profit group was facing reductions in programs and services. Therefore, we decided that they would benefit from our help in 2013, as well. The Robin Hood Association is thrilled to, once again, be the recipients of the money the eighteen hole sponsors have so generously offered. For those of you not familiar with the organization, Robin Hood has grown from a small school for mentally and physically challenged individuals that started almost 50 years ago to a group that operates extended learning, accommodation, seasonal programs and more for individuals in and around Sherwood Park. How wonderful of you to allow us to have the resources to do this.

The 2012/13 yearly scholarships at Salisbury Composite High School were awarded to Jessica Rogiani and Brandon Stewart. The NAIT Jeff Kenny Electrical Engineering Technology Award went to Yuan Zhou.

Your generosity and continued support is astounding. Our cup overflows time and time again. Thank you.

Please find attached the information that is provided to all of the tournament participants regarding the past and present expenditures of the many generous donations with which we are blessed. Once again, you will never realize the full impact that your sponsorship has had but please know that it is gratefully acknowledged and received.

With sincerest thanks,

The Kenny family – Stan, Cathy, Ross, Sherry, Georgina, Janelle, Marcie-Lee and Richard
